

STAND WITH PUBLIC SECTOR WORKERS

B.C.'s public sector workers are quitting in huge numbers because their wages aren't keeping up with rising costs.

It's creating staff shortages that put the services we rely on at risk.

BCGEU members in the public service are calling for cost-of-living adjustments (COLA) to protect their wages from inflation and stabilize staffing.

Learn more and add your voice in support at bcgeu.ca

#StandWithPublicSectorWorkers

